Finding Your Plot

Once you've found your park of choice, it's time to set your sights on locating the right plot for you. Availability can be limited at times, so when you find one you like it's time to put your dreams into action!

Whilst finding a holiday home you love is also important, we would always say that plot takes priority as each one is unique! We match our holiday homes to available plots, making the most of window placement to give you the best outlook possible.

Beautiful Locations

View of Far Arnside park

Our ownership parks are located across Lancashire, Cumbria and the Ribble Valley, perfectly placed to explore some of the UK's finest coastline and countryside.

It's all about location, we would recommend narrowing down which locations you would consider early on in your ownership journey. You may have certain items on your wish list, such as sea views, which will naturally focus your search.

Why leave it to imagination when you can see the real thing?

Our sited holiday homes for sale are available to view on plot, allowing you to take in the viewpoints from inside your potential new holiday home. You'll also find the outside space finished and ready to go.

Our open and honest process means you'll have all details from the very first time you speak to us, including: annual fees, insurance costs, licence agreement terms and our park rules.

Our sited holiday home prices include:

-  Siting & connection
-  Outside space
-  Wi-Fi installed
-  TV connection
-  Skirting around the base of the holiday home

Magnificent Memories

View of Lake Windermere

The majority of our parks are located just below the Lake District, perfectly placed to soak up the Morecambe Bay coastline whilst only a short journey from the UNESCO World Heritage site. Windermere is just 21 miles from our flagship Silverdale park with plenty of stops and hidden gems to discover along the way.

At our other locations such as the Ribble Valley, you'll find endless walking and cycling routes that weave through the rich Lancashire countryside. You're also never far from a cosy local pub for a bite to eat.

Part Exchange

Make the best memories throughout the year with your own holiday base!

We offer part exchange on touring caravans and motorhomes. Part exchange is a hassle free way of taking the next step towards holiday home ownership.
